

Local WIC Agency Membership Benefits

ADVOCACY

Provide a voice for WIC staff and families by working on local, state and national issues related to nutrition programs and issues impacting access to these programs

PARTNERSHIP AND COLLABORATION

Collaborate with other organizations and coalitions that support nutrition and anti-hunger programs

CONTINUING EDUCATION

Current and evidence-based continuing education opportunities for WIC and other health professionals related to Nutrition and Breastfeeding featuring local and national speakers

WEBINARS

1-2 free webinars for WIC employees in 2020. Continuing Education Certificates of Attendance provided

Local WIC Agency Membership Benefits

SCHOLARSHIPS

- Scholarships for WIC staff to attend the National WIC Association Leadership Conference in Washington DC
- Scholarships for community partners to attend local Continuing Education events organized by Nutrition First

LEADERSHIP

Participate in state and national decision making that impact the lives of families in Washington State

COMMUNICATION

- Provide updates on advocacy, policy and events in our state and on the national level that impact the lives of families in Washington State
- Maintains an active website, Facebook page and Instagram account

JOB POSTINGS AND MORE!!

- Free job postings on NF website, newsletter, and social media
- In response to pandemic NF has created: On-line resource library, hosted discussion calls related remote services, participant surveys, and advocacy for USDA waivers

